Appeal to Opp to join debate in Parl: Anurag

Opp plans protest, seeks Manipur CM's sacking

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ NEW DELHI

With the Opposition parties scheduled to stage a protest near the Gandhi statue in Parliament premises on Monday over the Manipur crisis, the Centre has appealed to all parties "with folded hands" to join the debate on the ethnic violence in the northeastern State when the Monsoon Session resumes in Parliament on Monday. There was a deadlock in proceedings in both the Houses when the Parliament Session started last week.

Opposition parties, led by the Congress on Sunday said that there would be no movement towards peace in Manipur as long as N Biren Singh remains the Chief Minister as it urged Prime Minister Narendra Modi to act now and not "deflect, distort and defame to cover up" the "collapse of the so-called double engine governance" in the northeastern State.

Union Minister Anurag Thakur urged the Opposition not to politicise the issue of atrocities against women in Manipur.

The deadlock in Parliament came in the wake of the Government insisting that Home Minister Amit Shah will speak on the issue on Manipur and not Prime Minister Modi.

"Atrocities against women are painful, no matter which State the victims belong to. It is the responsibility of the State to curb such incidents," Thakur said.Thakur said the Government is keen on a discussion on the issue of atrocities on women, which are prevalent in States such as Rajasthan, Manipur, Bihar and West Bengal.

"We wish that there should be a good discussion on this in the House, where all political parties will participate. Nobody should run away from the debate. It is my request to the Opposition with folded hands, do not run away from the discussion," Thakur said.

He said the Opposition should not politicise such issues and should join the discussion in Parliament.

"The Opposition does all this to remain in discussion, but it does nothing to join the discussion," Thakur said when asked about the protests on the Manipur issue.

The Opposition parties have planned joint protests in Parliament on Monday on the situation in Manipur. They have been demanding a statement from Prime Minister Modi in Parliament before starting a discussion on the issue. The Monsoon Session of Parliament began on July 20 and has witnessed disruptions over the ethnic violence in Manipur, particularly over a video purportedly shot on May 4 and depicting atrocities against women in the State. The video surfaced last week.

Congress chief spokesman Jairam Ramesh said, "Every passing day as the truth of the horror of Manipur continues to trickle out, it is clear that the law and order in the State has collapsed. Mobs, armed vigilantes and insurgent groups are running amok.

Women and families have faced the worst, unimaginable atrocities."

"There won't be any justice or movement towards peace as long as Biren Singh remains CM. The time has long past gone for the Prime Minister to act. He must ACT NOW and not deflect, distort and defame to cover up collapse of the so-called double engine government in Manipur," the Congress leader said on Twitter.

Meiteis account for about 53 per cent of Manipur's population and live mostly in the Imphal valley, while tribals, including Nagas and Kukis, constitute 40 per cent and reside mostly in the hill districts. As many as 160 people have died ever since the ethnic communal strife began in the State two months ago.

Assam Rifles files sedition case against civil society group

Rumours, fake news fuelling violence in Manipur: Officials

PTI ■ IMPHAL

The Assam Rifles has registered a sedition and defamation case against the chief of the Coordinating Committee on Manipur Integrity (COCOMI), an influential civil society group in Manipur's capital. A highly-placed Defence source said a First Information Report (FIR) was registered against COCOMI on July 10, after the outfit gave a call to people "not to surrender weapons."

Meanwhile, officials from various security agencies who have been monitoring the situation in the restive northeastern State said the ethnic violence that erupted on May 3 and has left over 160 dead has been largely fuelled by rumours and fake news. Regarding the FIR, a police officer confirmed, "We have registered an FIR against COCOMI against Jitendra Ningomba, convener of COCOMI, at Churachandpur police station, under Section 124 A of the Indian Penal Code (IPC), pertaining to sedition; Section 153 A IPC, promoting enmity between different groups on ground of religion, race, place of birth, residence, language, etc."

Sources alleged that many women protestors were assaulted by the Army in Moirang of Bishnupur on June 30. The Army, however, has denied the allegation.

In a memorandum to the Union Home Minister on June 4, COCOMI had demanded that the Assam Rifles be replaced with any other Central Armed Police Force, adding that local youths were not willing to surrender arms.

Flood threat over Delhi as Yamuna rises

Rising Yamuna water flows under the Old Railway Bridge. Ranjan Dimri/Pioneer

STAFF REPORTER ■ NEW DELHI

The water level in the Yamuna River has risen above the danger mark, reaching 206.39 meters at the Old Railway Bridge in Delhi. The surge in discharge from the Hathnikund Barrage, resulting from heavy rainfall in parts of Uttarakhand and Himachal Pradesh, has led to the rapid increase in the river's water level. This is expected to rise to 206.7 metres by Monday morning. "Thereafter the water level is likely to remain steady," stated the forecast.

Meanwhile, the Delhi flood has claimed a fresh victim, as a three-year-old boy drowned in north Delhi's Kirari area with his family blaming it on the negligence of the administration. The deceased, identified as Arif, was the only brother among his five sisters.

Union Home Minister Amit Shah spoke to Delhi Lieutenant-Governor VK Saxena about the water level in the Yamuna River. "Spoke to Gujarat CM Shri @Bhupendrapbjp Ji about the flood-like situation occurring in various parts of the State due to the recent heavy rainfall. Also had a discussion with LG of Delhi, Shri VK Saxena Ji about the water level in the Yamuna river. Ample numbers of SDRF and NDRF teams are available to help the people in need," the Home Minister said on Twitter.

The rise in water level yet again sparked concerns of flood-like situation in the national capital and adjoining regions. Continued on page 2

Irani should visit State, look into people's suffering: Maliwal

PTI ■ IMPHAL

The Delhi Commission for Women (DCW) chief Swati Maliwal on Sunday said that she had come to Manipur to assist people and would appeal to Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Union Minister for Women and Child Development Smriti Irani to visit to the State to look into people's suffering. Maliwal, who came Sunday afternoon to the ethnic strife-torn State, also said she reached here not to indulge in politics and would go back if those who should be here visited the State.

"I have not come here to do politics, but to assist people … I would appeal to the PM and Union Minister for WCD to come and visit the State," the feisty DCW chief told reporters at Imphal airport.

"Women here have already approached me … violence is affecting them for the last three months," she said. She had earlier announced she would be going ahead with her visit to the State despite the Manipur Government allegedly denying her permission for the visit. In a tweet on Sunday, Maliwal said she has written to Manipur Chief Minister N Biren Singh seeking an urgent meeting with him during her visit. "Manipur Govt recommended I consider postponing my visit due to law and order situation. After deliberation on their suggestion, have decided to fly to Imphal as planned. Sought time from Manipur CM. Will meet him & request him to come along to visit the sexual assault survivors," Maliwal tweeted. Maliwal also shared a copy of a letter written to the Manipur Chief Minister on Sunday in which she urged him to facilitate her visit.

"I seek an urgent meeting with your hon'ble self to discuss the extremely pertinent issue of the human rights violations and sexual assault cases occurring in Manipur... Several Manipuri women have come to Delhi in order to escape the ongoing violence in the State. I wish to discuss issues regarding their welfare," she said.

PM must step in to bring peace in Manipur: Irom

PTI ■ KOLKATA

Civil rights activist Irom Sharmila on Sunday described the incident of strip-and-parade of two tribal women as "inhuman" and "very disturbing" and urged Prime Minister Narendra Modi to immediately intervene to address the situation in her home State. She also demanded that Chief Minister N Biren Singh admit his failure and apologise to the people of Manipur.

The 51-year-old award-winning activist said she could not hold her tears after watching the video clip that showed two women being paraded naked and molested by a group of men in Kangpokpi district of the northeastern state on May 4. The video which surfaced on July 19 sparked condemnation countrywide.

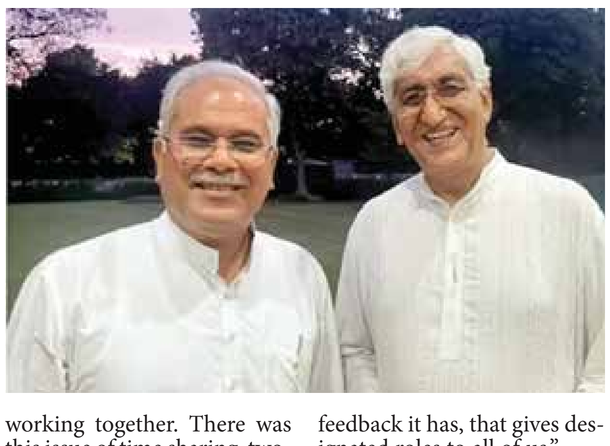
Baghel first in line for CM post post Chh'garh win: Singhdeo

PTI ■ NEW DELHI



Chhattisgarh Deputy Chief Minister TS Singhdeo on Sunday said the Congress would fight the Assembly polls under a "collective leadership" helmed by Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel and if the party wins, Baghel would be "first in line" to be considered for the CM's post.

Singhdeo said if an incumbent Chief Minister has not been removed, it means the party maintains its belief in that person being able to lead the team to victory and after the win "why should the captain be changed".

He also predicted the Congress was likely to bag another resounding mandate in the 90-member assembly, saying some are projecting 75-plus seats for his party but his estimate is anywhere between 60 to 75-plus. The Congress had won 68 seats in the 2018 Assembly polls.

Asked if tensions between Baghel and him are a thing of the past after he was made the Deputy Chief Minister last month, Singhdeo said, "There was no real bitterness or enmity, we (Baghel and him) were working together. There was this issue of time sharing, two-and-a-half years, I think that was weighing on our minds as well as on the minds of everybody associated with the two of us. That time has gone by. Even when those matters were in discussion, we were still performing to the best of our ability."

On whether he felt a sense of betrayal for not getting two-and-a-half years as the Chief Minister, he said, "I don't see it as a betrayal. I see it as a decision which the high command takes, it is their call. I cannot become the Chief Minister, it is the high command, on the feedback it has, that gives designated roles to all of us."

"There is no betrayal as it is the call which the high command has to take and we abide by it," Singhdeo added.

Asked whether he being made the deputy CM was a climb down from an earlier position or a progression, Singhdeo said he was, on protocol, already the number two in the cabinet.

"We have these official protocols. So the CM had given me the protocol after him. He was number one and I was number 2 and Tamradhwaj Sahu ji was number 3 etc. Continued on page 2

Cong stages silent protest on Rahul's LS disqualification

STAFF REPORTER ■ NEW DELHI

The Delhi Congress on Sunday staged a silent protest at Jantar Mantar to condemn the ethnic clashes in Manipur and voice their dissent over the disqualification of Rahul Gandhi from Lok Sabha.

Several leaders, including Ajay Maken, Harun Yusuf, Jai Kishan, and workers of the Congress gathered at the Jantar Mantar in the heart of the national Capital for the "Maun Satyagraha Dharna".

The Congress said silent protest sought to draw attention to the issues affecting common people and emphasized the party's commitment to address concerns related to unemployment and inflation both inside and outside Parliament. Delhi Congress President Anil Chaudhary said through the protest, the Congress party is highlighting the issues affecting the common people. "You can take away Rahul Gandhi's Lok Sabha membership, his house but he won't be afraid. Through 'Maun Satyagraha,' Congress party is bringing the issues of common people before the Govt," Chaudhary said. Continued on page 2

PM to launch swanky convention centre for G20

Bigger than Sydney Opera House, IECC at revamped Pragati Maidan will rival world's best venues

RAJESH KUMAR ■ NEW DELHI

Prime Minister Narendra Modi is likely to inaugurate on July 26 the swanky International Exhibition-cum-Convention Centre (IECC) and the ambitious Integrated Transit Corridor (ITC) at the redeveloped Pragati Maidan, which is set to host the G20 leaders' Summit in September. The redeveloped Pragati Maidan complex, which is owned by India Trade Promotion Organisation (ITPO) is spread across 123 acres and is India's largest venue for meetings, incentives, conferences and exhibitions (MICE).

In January 2017, the Government approved the proposal of ITPO for the redevelopment of Pragati Maidan by setting up of a world-class IECC in the national Capital. The total cost of the project is Rs 2,254 crore.

In a series of tweets sharing the photos and details of the IECC complex, the Press Information Bureau said: "The redeveloped ITPO [India Trade Promotion Organisation] complex, which will host India's G20 Leaders meetings will be inaugurated on 26th July." While the tweets did not mention it, a Government source said the Prime Minister is likely to inaugurate the new facility.

In terms of the covered space available for events, the redeveloped and modern IECC complex finds its place among the top 10 exhibition and convention complexes in the world, rivalling colossal names such as the Hannover Exhibition Centre in Germany, the National Exhibition and Convention Centre (NECC) in Shanghai, officials said.

The magnitude of the IECC's stature and infrastructure is a testament to India's capability to host world-class events on a grand scale, they said. At Level-3 of the convention centre, a grand seating capacity for 7,000 people exists, making it even larger than the seating capacity for approximately 5,500 in the iconic Sydney Opera House in Australia. This impressive feature establishes the IECC as a venue fit for hosting mega conferences, international summits, and cultural extravaganzas on a global scale.

The exhibition halls offer seven innovative spaces for showcasing products, innovations, and ideas. These state-of-the-art halls provide an ideal platform for exhibitors and companies to engage with their target audience, fostering business growth and networking opportunities.

Among its many exceptional features, the IECC boasts of a magnificent amphitheatre with a seating capacity of 3,000 individuals. Contd on page 2

TMC slams Centre for Manipur, BJP raises Bengal violence

SAUGAR SENGUPTA ■ KOLKATA

The Trinamool Congress continued its relentless attack on Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Home Minister Amit Shah for having failed to contain the situation in Manipur wondering when they would explain their conducts vis a vis the condition of the women in the Northeastern State.

Alleging that in yet another case an eighteen year old girl was subjected to brutalities the Bengal ruling outfit on its twitter handle wrote on Sunday that they had reports of the girl being handed over to four armed men who later subjected her to gang rape.

The incident took place in East Manipur district on May 15, days after three women were paraded naked by rioters, a video of which went viral triggering waves of criticism throughout the country.

The TMC wrote, "The tragedy doesn't end for Manipur! An 18 year old girl was handed over to four armed men by women vigilantes. She was later assaulted and gang-raped in Imphal East in Manipur on May 15," adding "If such brutal cases are coming in the public eye after more than a month, what's still hidden must be truly gruesome."

Holding the Prime Minister, Home Minister and the BJP's communal politics responsible for the ongoing situation in the Northeastern State, the party wondered when the Prime Minister and his government would take accountability for whatever was happening in Manipur.

"When will PM Narendra Modi, HM Amit Shah and (Manipur) Chief Minister N BirenSingh take accountability for the complete law and order failure?" the statement read. Meanwhile there was more political slugfest in post-panchayat poll Bengal where the BJP on Sunday sent yet another central fact-finding team led by its MP Vinod Sonkar who on Sunday visited parts of Hooghly district meeting the victims of TMC violence at Tarakeshwar, Arambagh etc.

"We have come here to see how the BJP men have been attacked, killed and injured, their houses looted, and they were banished from their villages … most of them are taking shelter in the party offices … this is a shame and we are seeing that shame that Mamata didi has perpetrated in Bengal and particularly the SC and STs with our own eyes … we will submit reports to our party president JP Nadda and other appropriate places," the leaders in the delegation said.

Reacting to the BJP central team's visit, TMC MP Shantanu Sen said that "such delegations are a regular affair in Bengal … they have sent 190-195 such fact finding teams but have been able to do nothing … they are just trying to remain afloat in the State politics because the BJP's vote percentage has suffered a good 16 percent fall --- from 38 percent in 2021 to 22 percent in 2023 they … they are just trying to remain relevant in the State politics."

The TMC leader also asked as to why no central fact finding team was not visiting MP, UP or for that matter Manipur where atrocities on people and particularly women have breached the ceiling.

"They are talking about attacks on the tribal people in Bengal … but it is the same BJP which did not invite President Droupadi Murmu, a tribal woman, in the inauguration of the new Parliament building … it is the same BJP, one of whose leaders publicly urinated in the face of a tribal man in Madhya Pradesh … they have no face to raise such issues," he said.

Meanwhile, CPI(M) State secretary Md Salim hit out at the BJP and the TMC for trying to create a binary in Bengal with the help of the media.

"The BJP is a spent force … they are almost gone … despite having 18 MPs and 70 MLAs --- some of who are regular travelers between the BJP and TMC --- they have managed to get only 22 percent votes whereas the Left has done remarkably well even in the face of massive violence to poll 21 percent votes … it is out of this fear that these two parties are trying to create a binary with the help of the media to count us out … but they will not succeed in their game plan," he said.

Tension in Bareilly after 4 hurt in attack on Kanwariyas

PNS ■ LUCKNOW

Communal tension prevailed in Bareilly after a group of kanwariyas were pelted with stones from the shrine of another community in Mohalla Jogi Nawada of Baradari area of the district.

The agitated mob vandalised two vehicles, including a police jeep, and some vehicles were also damaged in stone pelting. Four people were injured due to stone pelting. The situation was controlled after a heavy police force along with senior officers reached the spot.

Reports said that tension prevailed in Manauna village of Bareilly on Saturday night when the way of kanwariyas going to collect holy water was blocked by some local residents, including Bahujan Samaj Party district panchayat member Shamshad.

He accused the kanwariyas of setting new traditions as earlier they did not pass through the said route to collect holy water. The kanwariyas, however, claimed that they always took the holy water through this route and that this time a controversy was being deliberately created. They warned that if stopped from taking this route, they would not perform jalabhishek. The officials failed to resolve the dispute till late night.

According to sources, every year the kanwariyas from Manauna village go to Kachla ghat in Budaun to collect water. On Saturday, a group was formed under the leadership of Sanjay and Rajju Valmiki. On Saturday night, when they reached the Muslim-dominated area by their vehicles, Shamshad stopped them after which the dispute started.

Sub-Divisional Magistrate Govind Maurya kept trying to find a solution by talking to both sides. The kanwariyas said that they were being pressured to return, which was wrong. They said if the administration forced their return, they would not perform jalabhishek. The agitated kanwariyas also started raising slogans after sitting on the road.

Sources said that records were called from the police station to confirm the route of the kanwariyas, but even then the issue could not be resolved. The police said that the groups of kanwariyas were enrolled but details of the routes taken by them were not recorded.

Several UP leaders set to join BJP

PNS ■ LUCKNOW

The ruling Bharatiya Janata Party, in the midst of an intense drive to bolster its electoral strength ahead of the 2024 Lok Sabha polls, is all set to further expand its fold in Uttar Pradesh by welcoming several new party hoppers into its ranks. According to sources, these new members include Samajwadi Party's Sahab Singh Saini, Sushma Patel, Jagdish Sonkar and Rashtriya Lok Dal's Rajpal Saini. They are expected to join the BJP next week.

Sources said that there was discussion in the BJP about SP's Sahab Singh Saini joining the party next week for which preparations are on. Sahab Singh Saini and RLD's Rajpal Saini belong to backward communities, making their addition significant for the BJP's efforts in appealing to these communities, particularly in western UP.

Sushma Patel, from the Kurmi Other Backward Class community, who previously served as a Bahujan Samaj Party MLA and later joined the SP after the 2020 Rajya Sabha elections, is another new face likely to join the BJP. Patel's presence is expected to bolster the BJP's position in Purvanchal.

SP leader Jagdish Sonkar, a four-time MLA from Jaunpur, is also expected to join the BJP.

According to party sources, all these leaders, along with some other politicians, are also expected to join the BJP.

Earlier, Om Prakash Rajbhar, the chief of Suheldev Bhartiya Samaj Party, returned to the BJP-led National Democratic Alliance recently. Earlier, another OBC leader from Purvanchal, Dara Singh Chauhan, had resigned as a SP MLA to join the BJP.

During a recent visit to Lucknow, BJP national general secretary BL Santosh said that people who align with the party's ideology would be welcomed.

Flood threat over Delhi as Yamuna...

The rising water level prompted the administration to issue fresh warning on Sunday, urging people to vacate low-lying areas near the Yamuna, citing safety concerns. The Delhi Government has appealed to the public to remain vigilant and cooperate with the authorities during this critical time. Updates and advisories will be regularly provided to keep the residents informed about the evolving situation.

Delhi Flood and Irrigation minister Saurabh Bharadwaj added that the water being released from the Hathnikund Barrage was more than 2 lakh cubic feet per second. According to the Water Commission's estimates, the water level was likely to reach 206.7 metres by this evening.

About 41,000 people inhabit low-lying areas of Yamuna, of which about 27,000 were moved to safer locations, when the river breached its danger mark during second week of July. The rise in water level of river again is expected to impact rehabilitation of the affected families, the government said. The Yamuna has been in spate for over a week now, leading to flooding in several parts of the national capital. The primary reason behind the steady rise in the water level is the release of water from the Haryana barrage.

Bharadwaj also inspected the Wazirabad water treatment plant. This water treatment plant was among three such plants to get flooded a week back, leading to water supply problems in some parts of the capital. With the rising water levels in the Yamuna, Bhardwaj undertook this visit to assess the situation. Previously, the Water Treatment Plant had to be closed as water from the Yamuna had entered its premises. To prevent the recurrence of such issues, all necessary arrangements were thoroughly reviewed during the visit.

"The Delhi Jal Board has made embankments & reinforcement at vulnerable spots. Last time, water had seeped into the pumps and three water treatment plants had to be closed. But this time the Jal Board administration was well prepared. People are still residing in the relief camps and the government has made all arrangements for them," the minister said.

Meanwhile, the Gautam Buddh Nagar administration has also issued a flood warning for low-lying regions along the Hindon as water discharge in the river increased on Sunday. Around 200 people from five villages have been evacuated and shifted to shelter homes after the alert was raised on Saturday.

The river is flowing below the danger mark of 205-metre in the district, bordering Delhi in western Uttar Pradesh, according to a senior officer."Around 200 people from five villages have been evacuated and shifted to shelter homes that have been set up by the administration to provide them accommodation, food and health care," Additional District Magistrate Atul Kumar said."The Hindon is currently flowing at 200-metre, below the danger mark of 205-metre," said Kumar, who is also the nodal officer for flood relief work in Gautam Buddh Nagar.The district is located between Hindon and Yamuna rivers. The district recently witnessed floods along the Yamuna river banks, which submerged 550 hectares of low-lying land, and impacted thousands of people and animals.

41 Meiteis reach Assam...

"They are saying that they will stay here till the situation normalises," the SP said, adding that Assam Police is providing security to them.

Thousands of people from Meitei, Kuki and Hmar communities fled Manipur, and have been living in Assam since ethnic violence erupted in that State on May 3.

The Mizoram Government on Saturday reassured the Meitei community living in the State of safety and told them not to pay heed to rumours.

PM to launch swanky...

Equivalent to three PVR theatres combined, this grand amphitheatre sets the stage for captivating performances, cultural shows, and entertainment events, they said.

The convenience of visitors is a priority at the IECC, reflected in the provision of over 5,500 vehicle parking spaces. The ease of access through signal-free roads ensures that visitors can reach the venue without any hassle, they added.

For those who grew up in Delhi in the last millennium, Pragati Maidan (which translates to 'progress grounds') is virtually unrecognisable - gone are the pyramidal Nehru Pavilion, the Hall of Industries, the Hall of Nations, and, back in 2008, even the much-loved amusement park Appu Ghar. But the area has seen changes before too, given that the history of Pragati Maidan pre-dates independence.

The G20 Leaders' Summit is set to take place in Delhi on September 9-10. The 18th G20 Heads of State and Government Summit in New Delhi will be the culmination of all the G20 meetings held throughout the year by Ministers, senior officials and civil society.

A G20 Leaders' Declaration will be also adopted at the conclusion of the New Delhi Summit, stating the leaders' commitment towards the priorities discussed and agreed upon during the respective ministerial and working group meetings.

There were 13 of us including the chief minister. I am still number 2 with an added designation. I am the Deputy CM, so I am sure a lot of people would be seeing it as a step up," he said.

"I was one of the ministers in the cabinet. Now I am one of the ministers who is also designated Deputy CM. I am grateful to the party, very grateful to the party high command and Bhupesh bhai because with the consent and blessings of all, it would have happened," he told PTI over phone.

On whether all the issues were a thing of the past and the party were united in Chhattisgarh, Singhdeo claimed the leaders were united earlier as well.

"The issue (two-and-a-half years each CM tenure) was coming up repeatedly in the press so there was definitely that strain. It was difficult for Bhupesh bhai to reply all the time. It was very difficult for me to keep trying to reply to either the media or our associates (as to) when is it going to happen, what is going to happen, is there this two-and-a-half years thing, so it did weigh on us, certainly," the Congress leader said.

Now there are no two-and-a-half years, only four-five months are left for the elections, he noted and added the situation that existed earlier does not exist anymore.

On whether he was actually promised a two-and-a-half years in the CM's post, Singhdeo said there are many discussions that take place behind closed doors.

"The high command has never said anything about this two and a half years (tenure) so I am in no position to make any comment. One has to maintain the dignity of discussions that take place behind closed doors" Singhdeo said.

Asked whether the polls would be fought under a "collective leadership", Singhdeo said the decision taken on June 28, when the leaders from the state met the party top brass here, was that the polls will be "fought on a collective leadership which Bhupesh Baghel ji would lead".

"That is the situation and obviously if we win under the situation, he (Baghel) would be first in line to be considered for the chief minister," Singhdeo said.

Pressed further on his remark that Baghel will be first in line to be CM, the Chhattisgarh Deputy Chief Minister said, "Certainly. If you are the incumbent chief minister, for one you have not been removed, so the party maintains its belief in your being able to lead the team to victory and after you win, why should the captain be changed."

Asked whether he would also continue in the Deputy CM post if the Congress wins, Singhdeo said that is all for the high command to decide.

"Whatever responsibility they designate, we will accept them and we should accept them with full grace," he said.

He asserted the government has performed well on many parameters.

There may be some shortcomings in terms of perceived promises which may not have been fulfilled but by and large the government has done quite well, he said.

"I would give a seven out of 10 rating and very good chances of coming back to governance again," Singhdeo said. Asked about the anti-incumbency factor, the Congress leader said anti-incumbency would have been there if there would have been lack of performance.

"Where there is performance then the sense of anti-incumbency is not there. There has been performance on the front of the farmers, the forest dwellers, education, English medium schools, electricity concession, many initiatives in the urban areas too. In health, we have done quite well," he said.

Asked if he would be fighting the polls from Ambikapur again, Singhdeo said if the constituents of his seat would want him to contest then that would be his first priority and he would seek their views on that.

"I am in the process of doing that. Then the party has to accept me as the candidate, if they give me the ticket. First are the voters in the constituency and then the party. If both are there, then one will think of contesting, certainly" he said.

Asked that with the captain and vice captain decided, is the team set to win the finals, Singhdeo said it is not just the captain and vice captain, it is the entire team.

"We have all the other senior players, all the other party workers, we have to do it together, like we did it last time. The more we do it together, the more success there will be," he said.

Singhdeo was appointed deputy chief minister last month. He and Chief Minister Baghel had been engaged in a power tussle since the party came to power in the state in 2018.

There was talk throughout the tenure that party leadership had promised that he and Baghel would hold the chief minister's post alternately for two-and-a-half years each. However, the party leadership never publicly said anything on this. The Congress is seeking to retain power in Chhattisgarh and is projecting unity in the party unit.

PM must step in to bring peace in...

Since then, the police have arrested six people.

"It's inhuman and quite a disturbing incident. I could not hold my tears seeing the video I have received. I am deeply pained and shocked," Sharmila told PTI in an exclusive interview from Bengaluru.

Sharmila who hailed from Manipur had been on hunger strike for 16 years demanding repeal of the Armed Forces (Special Powers) Act (AFSPA). She was force-fed by food tubes during that period.

"It's clear that the State Government in Manipur has failed totally. And when a State cannot control the situation, why is the Prime Minister silent? He should protect the people of Manipur. If he is concerned about the suffering of the people of Manipur, he must intervene... Like the people of Gujarat, the Manipuris also require his leadership," she said.

The 'Iron Lady' of Manipur demanded that Chief Minister N Biren Singh admit his failure and apologise to the people.

"The CM must talk to all 60 MLAs putting aside the differences. He must talk to them one-to-one and consider their opinions and decide how to stop the feeling of hatred between the two communities (Meitei and Kuki). That is the need of the hour," she said.

After the first arrest was made in the strip parade incident on July 20, the Chief Minister had said he will ensure strict action is taken against all the perpetrators, including considering the possibility of capital punishment.

Sharmila also felt that the ban on the internet to curb the circulation of fake news and videos in the ethnic violence-hit state of Manipur has not helped the situation in Manipur.

"I do not think this ban on the internet has helped in controlling violence in Manipur.

On the contrary, had the internet been working, the women (strip parade victims) could have got justice and the culprits would have been behind bars," she said.

Prime Minister Modi, who was accused by the Opposition of keeping mum on the Manipur situation for over two months, condemned the incident of parading the two women naked a day after the video surfaced.

Sharmila demanded that the culprits should be awarded life imprisonment with rigorous labour and without parole.

Cong stages silent protest...

Delhi Congress criticized the BJP's comparison of the situation in strife-torn Manipur --reeling from ethnic violence that has claimed numerous lives and left many injured since May 3- with Rajasthan, where the Congress holds power.

Slamming the BJP for comparing the strife-torn Manipur with Rajasthan, Chaudhary said, "BJP should be ashamed of itself".

Scores of people have lost their lives and several others injured since the ethnic violence broke out in Manipur on May 3. Many reports of rape-murder, burning of houses have started surfacing now months after violence started.

Chaudhary condemned the BJP's attempt to deflect attention and underscored the party's determination to continue raising concerns about the attacks on the Constitution and demand accountability from the Central Government.

Chaudhary said there have been "attacks on the Constitution" and the Congress will continue to raise the issues of unemployment and inflation inside as well as outside Parliament. Today, we have gathered here to raise our demand that the central government must reply to questions being raised on these issues, he claimed.

डूब क्षेत्र में हट नहीं रहे लोग, महिला की

• जिला प्रशासन ने तेज किया बचाव अभियान, अभी तक तीन की गई जान

पायनियर समाचार सेवा। नोएडा

मंगलवार दोपहर तक जहां पर यमुना का जलस्तर गिरता हुआ नजर आया, वहीं हिंडन नदी अभी भी उफान पर है। हिंडन नदी के बढ़ते पानी के चलते सूरजपुर थाना क्षेत्र के लखनावली गांव के पास बनी कॉलोनी में पानी भर गया।

वहीं तमाम चेतावनी के बाद भी लोग डूब क्षेत्र ने नहीं निकल रहे है। वहीं गांव अटौर नंगला में एक महिला अपना घर देखने के लिए जा रही थी। इस दौरान रास्ते में पैर फिसलकर वो पानी से भरे गड्ढे में गिरकर डूब गई। यहां से पुलिस और जिला प्रशासन ने दर्जनों घरों में पानी के अंदर फंसे लोगों को रेसक्यू करके बाहर निकाला।

वहीं हैबतपुर, छीजासी, सोरखा, कुलेसरा पुस्ता, के पास बनी कच्ची कॉलोनियों में रहने वाले लोगों के घरों में भी पानी घुस गया है।

पुलिस और जिला प्रशासन के लोग लगातार रेसक्यू करके उन्हें बाहर निकाल रहे हैं। जिला प्रशासन और पुलिस के बार-बार चेतावनी के बावजूद भी काफी लोग डूब क्षेत्र में रह रहे थे, जिसकी वजह से उन्हें परेशानियों का सामना करना पड़ रहा है। उन्हें वहां से निकालकर आश्रय स्थल में रखा जा रहा है। जिलाधिकारी मनीष वर्मा ने अधिकारियों को सख्त निर्देश जारी करते हुए कहा है कि हर स्थिति पर नजर रखे तथा किसी भी तरह से बाढ़ पीड़ितों को परेशानी ना हो इसका ध्यान रखे। लोगों का मानना है कि जैसे-जैसे यमुना का जलस्तर नीचे आएगा, हिंडन नदी का भी देर रात तक जलस्तर नीचे आ सकता है। हिंडन नदी ग्रेटर नोएडा में आकर यमुना नदी में मिल जाती हैं।

पैर फिसलने से खड्डे मे

गाजियाबाद। गाजियाबाद में हिंडन नदी की बाढ़ ने एक और जान ले ली। गांव अटौर नंगला में बाढ़ का पानी कम होने पर एक महिला अपना घर देखने के लिए जा रही थी। इस दौरान रास्ते में पैर फिसलकर वो पानी से भरे गड्ढे में गिरकर डूब गई और उसकी मौत हो गई। इससे पहले रविवार को भी बाढ़ देखने आए दो लड़कों की डूबकर मौत हो गई थी।उधर, बाढ़ से पर्यावरण सेतु पुल के बहने का खतरा हो गया है। दरअसल, ये पुल नदी के ऊपर बना है और इसमें अब जलकुंभी फंस गई हैं। इस वजह से बाढ़ का पानी आगे न बढ़कर सिटी फॉरेस्ट एरिया सहित आसपास के गांवों में घुस गया है। गाजियाबाद विकास प्राधिकरण ने सिंचाई विभाग को पत्र लिखकर जलकुंभी हटवाने की मांग की है, ताकि पानी का बहाव बना रहे। हिंडन नदी के

नोएडा-मोहननगर मेट्रो विस्तार योजना अटकी

पायनियर समाचार सेवा। गाजियाबाद

• पैसे की किल्लत के कारण अब जीडीए ने प्रोजेक्ट से हाथ खड़े किए

नोएडा सेक्टर 62 से मोहननगर तक प्रस्तावित मेट्रो योजना पर कार्य नहीं होगा। दरअसल तीन बाद इस प्रोजेक्ट का डीपीआर तैयार किया गया। मगर पैसे की किल्लत के कारण अब जीडीए ने इस प्रोजेक्ट पर कार्य करने से अघोषित तौर पर हाथ खड़े कर दिए है।

दरअसल जीडीए की कोशिश थी कि अगर नोएडा सेक्टर-62 से गाजियाबाद के मोहननगर तक मेट्रो का विस्तार होता है तो गाजियाबाद में रहने वाले लोगों को इसका सीधे फायदा होगा। इसके लिए वर्ष 2015, 2018 और 2021 में तीन बार डीपीआर तैयार कराए गए। हालांकि डीपीआर में रूट अलग अलग रहे। एक बार नोएडा सेक्टर 62 से साहिबाबाद गांव तक मेट्रो विस्तार की योजना बनी। दो बार इस प्रोजेक्ट के विस्तार का मोहननगर तक के लिए प्लान तैयार किया गया। न्यूनतम खर्च 1845 करोड़ से लेकर अंतिम बार में जब डीपीआर बना वह करीब 2100 करोड़ के आसपास था।

जीडीए वीसी आरके सिंह की भी कोशिश थी कि इस योजना पर कार्य हो। मगर पैसे की किल्लत के कारण इस योजना पर कार्य शुरू नहीं हो सका।
